How do you create a roadmap for a your campus that creates the best environment for teaching and learning today and tomorrow?

We partner with you to find the right strategies and technologies to transform your campus today and into the future.

SIEMENS
Ingenuity for life

Data
- Improve students' educational experience through better utilization of campus physical assets
- Use data as part of a connected curriculum around building usage, energy consumption, security and more

Education to employment
- Develop student skills to fuel local economy
- Customize learning to leverage digitalization and AI for preparing graduates for 21st skills
- Engage community, businesses and government in a collaborative ecosystem

Energy
- Dedicated focus on decarbonization including on-site renewable energy production
- Focus on resilient energy systems

Campus of the Future

Campus space & asset management
- Increase insight on building and learning space utilization
- Track and locate high value assets
- Optimize booking management systems and respond to occupancy in real time

Buildings
- Focus on a smart, connected campus to improve students' learning experience and quality of life

Security & fire safety
- Improve analytics through video verification
- Use biometrics for authorization to restricted areas
- Improve response times via intelligent and integrated building automation for first responders

Mobility
- Provide safe walking routes
- Employ shared and electric transportation
- Implement electrification of transportation

usa.siemens.com/HigherEd
#TimeToCare