Siemens to relinquish majority ownership from the outset

- Plans call for admission to trading on the Regulated Market and in the Prime Standard segment of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange by the end of September 2020
- Initial listing to take place on September 28, 2020

![Pie chart showing ownership distribution]

- 55.0% Siemens AG shareholders
- 35.1% Siemens
- 9.9% Siemens Pension-Trust e.V.

1 Of which 12.02% held by the wholly owned subsidiary Siemens Beteiligungen Inland GmbH
Allocation ratio enables uncomplicated implementation of spin-off

- One Siemens Energy AG share for every two Siemens AG shares
- Allocation ratios of 1:1 to 10:1 were selected for previous spin-offs in Germany (OSRAM, Uniper, Lanxess, Metro)
  - Siemens Energy share price expected to be within the range typical for Germany
  - Modest volume of partial entitlements (“fractional shares”)
- Nominal value of €1.00 per share in Siemens Energy AG
Very solid capital structure – Solid investment-grade rating targeted

- Equity of about €17.3 billion\(^1\) as of March 31, 2020
- Equity ratio of 37.8%\(^1\)
- Siemens Energy provided with liquidity equivalent to about €6.2 billion – of which around €4.1 billion is to be used to settle liabilities in period before spin-off takes effect
- Confirmation from a bank consortium for the provision of a revolving credit facility of €3.0 billion
- Both the Managing Board of Siemens AG and the Executive Board of Siemens Energy AG hold that Siemens Energy AG has been funded with sufficient capital and liquidity
- The aim is to meet the requirements for a solid investment-grade rating

\(^1\) All figures are on a pro forma basis as of March 31, 2020
Future independence contractually safeguarded

- Siemens Energy business to be managed autonomously and independently of Siemens AG

- No direct or indirect controlling influence on the part of Siemens AG

- No full consolidation of Siemens Energy after the spin-off has taken effect

- Deconsolidation agreement ensures that Siemens cannot exercise any controlling influence on the Siemens Energy business. This includes such elements as:
  - Limitations on exercising of voting rights
  - Maximum number of Siemens representatives on Supervisory Board of Siemens Energy AG (maximum of three seats)
New company has a strong and established brand

- Siemens and Siemens Energy have entered various licensing and service agreements in line with industry standards.
- Corporate identity of Siemens Energy and Siemens Gamesa Renewable Energy (SGRE) continues to include the “Siemens” brand.
- Negotiation of corresponding brand license agreements
- Payment of license fee by Siemens Energy
  - Based on adjusted EBITA margin
  - 0.3% to 1.2% of brand-relevant revenue (excluding SGRE)
- License fee to be paid for fiscal 2020 expected to be in mid-double-digit million range.
Part of a powerful ecosystem

- Use of Siemens AG services for a transitional period and possibly for the long term
- Areas such as human resources, accounting, purchasing, sales, marketing, IT, communications, technology, and research and development
- Contracts of different durations – usually from 12 to 36 months
- Over the entire contractual periods, total volume of transitional services agreements and of long-term service agreements to amount to about €1.0 billion overall
- Preferred financing agreement effective upon completion of spin-off from Siemens AG
  - Regulates non-exclusive cooperation for both parties in the areas of debt financing, commercial finance (especially leasing) and equity financing for customers of the Siemens Energy business
Attractive dividend policy for both companies

Siemens AG

40% – 60%

of the Group’s net income\(^1\)

1 Planned distribution ratio for Siemens AG shareholders

Siemens Energy AG

40% – 60%

of the Group’s net income\(^2\)

(No dividend expected for fiscal 2020 – with possible exception of any legally required minimum dividend)

2 Planned distribution ratio for Siemens Energy AG shareholders
Public listing requires no action on the part of Siemens AG shareholders

- Siemens Energy AG shares will automatically be added to shareholders’ securities accounts
- Distribution of shares free of commission or expenses for Siemens shareholders with securities accounts in Germany
- Possible commissions and expenses for shareholders with securities accounts outside Germany due to existing agreements with the institution serving as the custodian bank
- Announcement of details of the distribution process immediately after the spin-off has been registered in the commercial register (“allocation announcement”)
- Allocation announcement also to be published in German Federal Gazette
- Crediting of the Siemens Energy AG shares in the securities accounts of the Siemens shareholders by the custodian bank usually before the start of trading on the trading day following the allocation date
Simple procedure for partial entitlements of Siemens AG shareholders

- Partial entitlements for Siemens shareholders with an odd number of shares

- Two basic options:
  - Selling partial entitlements (maximum of one per Siemens shareholder) via the institution serving as the custodian bank
  - Purchasing partial entitlements (maximum of one per Siemens shareholder) to receive one Siemens Energy AG share
