Making ÖBB fit for all climes:
Siemens trains tested in Vienna

The new Desiro cityjets for Austrian Federal Railways (ÖBB) are currently undergoing extensive testing in the world’s largest climatic wind tunnel at Rail Tec Arsenal (RTA) in Vienna, Austria. Capable of mimicking extreme climates that range from tropical heat to Siberian cold, the tunnel puts the weather resistance of these trains to the test in order to ensure reliable and safe travel in all weather conditions.

All pictures: Copyright ÖBB/Kozak

Pictures are available at:
www.siemens.com/press/desiro-oebb

Editor
Ellen Schramke
+49 30 386 22370
ellen.schramke@siemens.com