

Congo SICOMINES copper mining project

The site of SICOMINES copper mining project

At Kolwezi of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Siemens provided control systems for processes including mining and beneficiation, as well as over 200 converters, to SICOMINES copper mining project, the largest copper mining project invested by Chinese companies in Africa. Siemens also ensured efficient project operation after delivery through its full lifecycle services.