

Training – Electronics Engineer for Automation Technology (f/m/d)

- Qualification: Certified by the German Chamber of Industry and Commerce
- Duration: 3½ years
- Requirement: Based on the requirements of the individual training site
- Siemens Training Center: Bremen, Düsseldorf, Essen, Erlangen, Hamburg, Hannover, Munich, Stuttgart

Contents

This training program covers the principles of automation systems, industrial communication, programming, process visualization and IT security. In practice, participants specialize in the integration and commissioning of automation systems, hands-on seminars, the configuration and parameterization of components, hardware and software migration as well as intelligent plant automation and cloud connectivity.