

New!

90°C rated wireway in switchboards

The termination temperature for main incoming cables in a SMP, FCI, FCII busbed pull sections can be sized at 90°C, instead of the previous 75°C.

For direct-cable incoming entries, the termination temperature rating of the component must be respected, to be sized at 75°C as shown on drawings.