

Baroness Nemat Shafik (DBE, DPhil), London,
United Kingdom

Director of the London School of Economics

Member of the Supervisory Board of Siemens AG since January 31, 2018

Personal information

Date of birth: August 13, 1962
Place of birth: Alexandria, Egypt
Nationality: Egyptian, U.S., UK

Education

- BA in economics and politics, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, U.S.
- MSc in economics, London School of Economics, London, UK
- Ph.D. in economics, St. Anthony's College, University of Oxford, UK

Professional career

1989-1994 Georgetown University, economics department, Washington, D.C., USA: Adjunct Professor 1990-1995 The World Bank Group, Washington, D.C.: Various Positions (Economist, International Economics Department, Policy, Research, and External Affairs; Economist, World Development Report; Country Economist, Central European Department; Senior Economist, Office of the Chief Economist, Regional Vice President Middle East and North Africa)
1996-1999 The World Bank Group, Washington, D.C.: Director, Private Sector and Finance, Middle East and North Africa Region
1999-2004 The World Bank Group, London, UK: Vice President, Private Sector Development & Infrastructure
2004-2008 Department for International Development of the British Government, London: Director General, Regional Programs
2008-2011 Department for International Development of the British Government, London: Permanent Secretary
2011-2014 International Monetary Fund, Washington, D.C.: Deputy Managing Director
2014-2017 Bank of England, London: Deputy Governor, Markets & Banking
Since 2017 London School of Economics, London: Director
Since 2020 Cross-Bench Peer, House of Lords, UK

Membership in supervisory boards whose establishment is required by law or in comparable domestic or foreign controlling bodies of business enterprises

German positions:

- Siemens Aktiengesellschaft, Berlin and Munich*

* listed on the stock exchange