

Cilegon, January 31, 2013

Josef Winter appointed as President Director and CEO of PT Siemens Indonesia

Effective October 1, 2012, Josef Winter was appointed as President Director and CEO of PT Siemens Indonesia. He succeeded Hans Peter Haesslein who retired after more than thirty years of service in Siemens.

Josef Winter was previously Head of Siemens' activities in Germany before appointed as the Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) of Siemens AG, where he was in charge for two years to maintain Siemens' high compliance standards and to integrate compliance more closely with business. His role was to provide advice to the sales organization and to further improve the efficiency and practicability of the compliance system.

Josef Winter had previously already served as CEO of the Regional Companies in Germany and South Korea. He was also a Member of the Managing Board of the German-South Korean Chamber of Industry and Commerce in 2003 and President of the German-South Korean Chamber of Industry and Commerce in 2004. He first joined Siemens in 1984 and is a graduate from Technical University of Aachen in Germany, majoring in Electrical Engineering.

Contact for journalists:

PT Siemens Indonesia, Media Relations
Riska Noer Zaitun, phone: +62 21 27543009
E-mail: riska.zaitun@siemens.com

For further information on www.siemens.co.id

About Siemens in Indonesia

With four companies and employing more than 1,800 people, Siemens is one of the largest and oldest European companies in Indonesia. Siemens delivers cutting-edge solutions and technologies in the fields of Energy, Industry, Healthcare, and Infrastructure & Cities. Established in Indonesia since 1909, we have been a reliable partner for the country's infrastructure development. In fiscal 2012 (October 1, 2011 – September 30, 2012), sales to customers in Indonesia amounted to 249 million euros and new orders totaled to 179 million euros. Further information is available on the Internet at: <http://www.siemens.co.id>