

Training – IT Specialist in System Integration (f/m/d)

- Qualification: Certified by the German Chamber of Industry and Commerce
- Duration: 2½ years
- Requirement: Advanced technical college certificate/higher education entrance qualification
- Siemens Training Center: Munich

Contents

This training program covers both procedural and object-oriented programming, database systems, network technology, cybersecurity and IT service management. Participants also learn about LAN component configuration, wireless communication, implementing cybersecurity solutions and installing and configuring operating systems.

This wide range of subjects is key to the development and management of modern IT systems.