

Uwe-Armin Ruttkamp

- Head of Machine Tool Systems (MTS) der Business Unit Motion Control

Professional career

Uwe-Armin Ruttkamp studied Computer Sciences at FAU Erlangen and graduated in 1988.

In 1988, he completed an internship with the Siemens AG.

As from 1994 he worked as software developer in the development sector. In 1998, he accepted a delegation to Princeton, NJ, where he worked for Industrial Software. In 2001 he changed to Automation & Drives, initially as project manager of various development projects in the areas controlling and HMI and from 2006 onwards as Head of Product Management for SIMATICs in Nuremberg.

In 2012, Mr. Ruttkamp became CEO of the Industriegetriebe GmbH in Penig. He returned to Siemens AG in 2013 and became Head of System Engineering in Fürth.

From November 2016 till March 2019 Mr. Ruttkamp was Head of the Business Segment Machine Tool Systems within the Siemens Business Unit Motion Control (MC).

Since April 1, 2019 Uwe-Armin Ruttkamp is Head of the Business Segment Machine Tool Systems within the Siemens Business Unit Motion Control (MC) of Siemens Digital Industries.