

After 100 years, we are still building a better tomorrow.

Siemens Canada Internet

General interest press release

Siemens' Burlington Testing Laboratory receives CSA SMTC Certification

Oakville, ON, August 7, 2014

Today, Siemens' Burlington plant was awarded the Supervised Manufacturer's testing for Certification (SMTC) by CSA Group. CSA Group authorizes the facility to perform the required tests under the SMTC programs, which now enables the plant to perform self-accredited testing of electrical products and increase operation efficiency.

For more information or to arrange an interview, please contact Ann Adair, Vice President, Communications and Government Affairs

ann.adair@siemens.com

Follow us on

Keep informed with the latest news

Text Size | |