

SIEMENS

Ingenuity for life

Science Quiz

Question Book

siemens.co.uk/education

Did you know?

Marie Curie, the scientist who developed the theory of radioactivity, was the first scientist to be awarded two Nobel prizes.

Are you a future scientist? Test your knowledge of science facts, theories and history and explore the world of science.

Question 1

What is the name of the force that pulls objects towards the centre of the earth?

Question 2

Which planet is nicknamed "The Red Planet"?

Question 3

Which animal appears first in the dictionary?

Question 4

How many bones does the average human have?

Question 5

What is the chemical formula for carbon dioxide?

Question 6

Unscramble 'nogyx' to spell an element in the periodic table.

Question 7

What temperature does water boil at?

Question 8

What is the hardest known natural material?

Question 9

Which substance is most used for pencil lead?

Question 10

Who was the first person to walk on the moon?

Question 11

Name all 6 basic animal groups.

Question 12

What is the name of the chemical reaction that takes place inside a plant, producing food for it to survive?

Question 13

What is the only bird that can hover in the air and can also fly backwards?

Question 14

What is the name of the process when a gas changes to a liquid?

Question 15

A material which allows electrical current to pass through it is called what?

Did you know?

The principle of displacement was discovered by Archimedes, when he was taking a bath. It is said that he ran straight out of his bathtub screaming "Eureka".

Did you know?

If you could fly to the Sun from Earth in a normal plane it would take about 19 years!

Score: /15

How did you score?

Stay curious about science and explore STEM at home
with these awesome
DIY Science videos.
Scan the QR code to watch!

siemens.co.uk/education