

Wang Haibin

Executive Vice President Siemens Ltd., China
General Manager, Digital Industries
Siemens Greater China

Mr. Wang Haibin graduated from Tsinghua University in 1991. In 1993 Mr. Wang joined Siemens as sales representative for SIMATIC PLC business in AUT 1 Department.

In 1997, Mr. Wang was promoted as Section Manager in AUT1 Business Unit for Business Development of SIMATIC PLC Low-end PLC. Later in 1999, he took over the position of OEM Section Manager A&D Region East.

From November 2003 to August 2006, Mr. Wang was delegated to Siemens AG as Regional Manager in A&D CD BR2, responsible for the low-voltage business development in Canada.

After returning to China in September 2006, Mr. Wang Haibin was appointed as Regional General Manager A&D Region East.

In October, 2008, Mr. Wang Haibin was promoted as Senior Vice President of IA & DT of Siemens Ltd., China.

In March 2010, Mr. Wang Haibin was appointed as Senior Vice President of Siemens Ltd., China, and General Manager of Industry Automation Division.

In September 2012, Mr. Wang Haibin was appointed as General Manager of Customer Services Division, in addition to his role as the GM of Industry Automation Division.

In October 2014, Mr. Wang Haibin was appointed as Executive Vice President of Siemens Ltd., China, General Manager of Digital Factory Division.

Starting from April 1, 2019, Mr. Wang Haibin was appointed Executive Vice President Siemens Ltd., China, General and General Manager, Digital Industries, Siemens Greater China.

(Updated on April 1, 2019)