

Industrial Security – Plant security

Production facilities are constantly exposed to dangers. Infected equipment, unauthorized personnel, and unauthorized access via the network and Internet are affecting the security status of the plant.

legal requirements

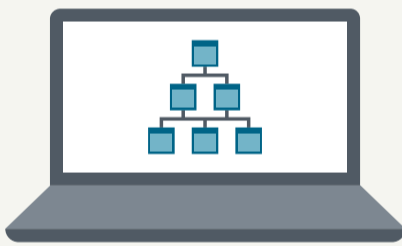

IEC 62443

WIB

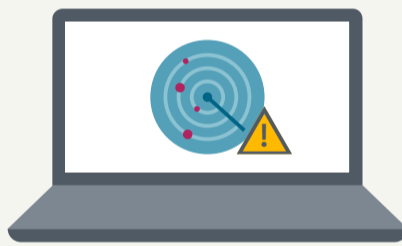

The solution: Industrial Security – Plant security

Offers comprehensive protection against cyber threats. From physical access protection, consideration of legal requirements, to suitable norms, standards and laws, including continuous monitoring of the system and network as well as other measures with Plant Security Services. For example ...

Support for network planning

Installation of intrusion detection systems

Integrating measures for system hardening

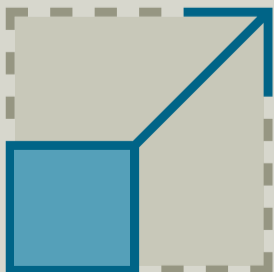

Managed Security Services

provide continuous updates and comprehensive monitoring in order to adapt quickly to changing threats and to provide a transparent view of the plant's security status.

Your benefits:

Scalable – from basic to intensive consulting

Worldwide monitoring with security experts from Siemens

Warning about threats in real time