

Our history in the Czech Republic

From the electrification of the first communities to a global technology powerhouse

1880s

Siemens & Halske (S&H) Vienna provides numerous communities with electricity

1890

The first representative offices of S&H Vienna are opened on the territory of the Czech Republic in Prague and Brno

1895–1898

S&H Vienna constructs a municipal power plant in Brno

1920

Siemens & Co. KG is founded in Prague

1923

A Technical Bureau is opened by Siemens Vienna in Prague

1925

The Elektrizitäts- und Maschinen AG Müglitz and Siemens & Co. KG in Prague merge to form Siemens Elektrizitäts AG (SEAG) in Mohelnice

1930

Founding of the Elektrotechna Aktiengesellschaft für Schwachstromtechnik (low-current technology) in Prague

1931

Radiotechna GmbH is founded as a Siemens company in Prague

1968

A 4004/35 data processing system is supplied to the Tatra Works

1969

A technical consulting office is set up under the name of Triga Technisches Büro Siemens Prag

1971–1990

The export trading company Efektim functions as Siemens' agent

1972

The first order is received from the CSSR post office for terminating equipment

Our history in the Czech Republic

1991

A Siemens company is founded with headquarters in Prague and offices in Bratislava and Brno

1993

Siemens takes over factories in Trutnov for the manufacturing of low-voltage switchgear technology

1994

The motor works of Czech state-owned company MEZ are acquired and Siemens Elektromotory s.r.o is founded

1999

Siemens founds Czech joint venture in the field of road traffic systems

2002

Order received for the delivery of 20 subway trains for the Prague metro

2004

Siemens equips the mobile phone network of Oskar Mobil in the Czech Republic with EDGE technology

2007

Siemens signs contract to take over majority stake in the Czech company OEZ, Letohrad, in the area of low-voltage switchgear and electro-installation systems

2010

First order from the Czech Republic for the turnkey construction of a photovoltaic power plant in Dobré Pole near Brno

2012

Siemens begins refurbishment of Prunerov II, the largest lignite-fired power plant in the Czech Republic

2013

Siemens wins order to supply two gear units to Voith Hydro Austria for Europe's largest Kaplan pit turbines in the Czech Republic